

Academic discipline:
" History of Belarus (ancient times - first half of the 13th century)"

Code and name of specialty	1-02 01 01 History and Social sciences
Training course	1
Semester of training	1
Number of class hours:	48
Lectures	20
Seminar classes	28
Practical classes	-
Laboratory classes	-
Form of current assessment (credit/differential credit/exam)	credit
Number of credits	3
Competencies to be formed	To know the basics of research activities, to search, analyse and synthesise information. To work in a team, to be tolerant of social, ethnic, confessional, cultural and other differences. To be capable of self-development and improvement in professional activities. To take the initiative and adapt to changes in professional activity. To have a humanistic outlook and the qualities of citizenship and patriotism.
Brief content of the academic discipline:
The discipline studies social-economic, political, ethnocultural processes in Belarusian lands from ancient times to the first half of the 13th century: penetration and development of the territory of Belarus by man, disintegration of the primitive communal system and transition to the early class society, adoption of Christianity, material and spiritual culture of the Belarusian land population, formation and development of feudalism, formation of statehood - the Polotsk and Turov principalities, internal policy and political position of the Belarusian lands.	