

Academic discipline:
"History of Belarus (second half of the 16th-18th centuries)"

Code and name of specialty	1-02 01 01 History and Social Sciences
Training course	2
Semester of training	3
Number of class hours:	58
Lectures	24
Seminar classes	34
Practical classes	-
Laboratory classes	-
Form of current assessment (credit/differential credit/exam)	Credit
Number of credits	3
Competencies to be formed	Possession of a humanistic worldview, feelings of citizenship and patriotism, understanding of the social significance of future professional activity; possession of a culture of thinking, the ability to perceive, generalize and analyze philosophical, ideological, socially and personally significant problems in professional activity; identification of factors and mechanisms of historical development, highlighting the social significance of historical events; identification of the main periods, trends and patterns of social, economic, political, ethno-national, religious-confessional and cultural events and processes taking place on the territory of Belarus, determination of the main stages and patterns of socio-cultural development of man and society; identification of the main periods, trends and patterns of development of world national culture.
Summary of the content of the academic discipline: The discipline covers socio-political, socio-economic, ethno-religious events in the history of Belarus in the second half of the 16th - the end of the 18th centuries, from the creation of the Commonwealth of Poland and the Union of Lublin between the Grand Duchy of Lithuania and the Kingdom of Poland in 1569 to its partitions in 1772, 1793 and 1795 between the Russian Empire, Prussia and Austria.	