

Academic discipline:
"History of Russia and Ukraine (1900 - 1917)"

Code and name of specialty	1-02 01 01 History and Social Sciences
Training course	2
Semester of training	4
Number of class hours:	48
Lectures	20
Seminar classes	28
Practical classes	-
Laboratory classes	-
Form of current assessment (credit/differential credit/exam)	Credit
Number of credits	3
Competencies to be formed	To know the cause-and-effect links and patterns of historical development; general and specific in the development of East Slavic peoples; history of East Slavic peoples in the context of European and world history; to be able to identify factors and mechanisms of historical development, determine the social significance of historical events; identify the main periods, trends, patterns of social, economic, political, ethno-national, religio-confessional and cultural events and processes that took place in Russia and Ukraine
Summary of the content of the academic discipline:
The state system in Russia. Nicholas II. S.Y. Witte. Agrarian, workers', national question, problem of national education in government policy. "Police socialism". V.K. Pleve's course for strengthening of the autocratic system. P.D. Svyatopolk-Mirsky. The era of "trust". The Far East in policy of the government. The Russo-Japanese war and its results. The Anglo-Russian agreement and establishment of the Entente. Bosnian crisis. Potsdam agreement. Russia and the Balkan wars. Social and political struggle in the beginning of the 20th century. Creation of political parties. The first Russian revolution. Activities of I and II State Duma. State coup on June 3, 1907. Russian government's domestic policy and social and political movement from 1907 to 1914. The Third State Duma. P.A. Stolypin. The new rise of the general democratic movement. The IV State Duma. Domestic political situation in Russia on the eve of World War I. Russia's participation in World War I. The war and Russian society. Role of the eastern front in disrupting German plans of war. Ukrainian lands in the structure of the Russian Empire in the beginning of the 20th century. Western Ukrainian lands in the beginning of the 20th century. February Revolution in 1917. Culture in Russia and Ukraine at the beginning of the 20th century.	