

Academic discipline:
"History of the Middle Ages"

Code and name of specialty	1-02 01 01 History and Social Sciences
Training course	2
Semester of training	3
Number of class hours:	62
Lectures	32
Seminar classes	30
Practical classes	-
Laboratory classes	-
Form of current assessment (credit/differential credit/exam)	Exam
Number of credits	3
Competencies to be formed	A specialist must identify the main periods, trends and patterns of social, economic, political, cultural events and processes that took place in the world in the Middle Ages, know the cause-and-effect relationship and patterns of historical development, the general and special in the development of medieval civilizations, know the basic stages of historical development of the East Slavs, the facts of historical reality, be able to identify the essential and special through comparison and typology in the history of the East Slavs, successfully apply the obtained knowledge of the history of the East Slavs.
Summary of the content of the academic discipline:
The chronological framework and general periodization of medieval history. The main sources of information about the medieval era. Crisis and the emergence of elements of feudalism in the Late Roman Empire. The State of the Franks. States of Western Europe in the 9th - mid 11th centuries. South-eastern Europe in the early Middle Ages. Oriental society in the early Middle Ages. Western Europe in the developed and late Middle Ages. Hungary, Wallachia and Byzantium in the developed and late Middle Ages. The Church and its organization in Western and Central Europe. The culture of medieval Europe. Eastern countries in the first half of II millennium. Western and Central Europe in the transition to the New Age.	