

Academic discipline:«History of Russia and Ukraine (1945 – the first quarter of the XXI century)»

Code and name of specialty	1-02 01 01 History and social sciences
Training course	3
Semester of training	6
Number of class hours:	60
Lectures	24
Seminar classes	36
Practical classes	-
Laboratory classes	-
Form of current assessment (credit/ differential credit/ exam)	Exam
Number of credits	3
Competencies to be formed	To identify the factors and mechanisms of historical development, to determine the social significance of historical events; to identify the main periods, tendencies and patterns of social, economic, political, cultural events and processes that took place on the territory of Russia and Ukraine; to analyze and interpret historical events and processes at the local, regional and global levels of the periods of Modern and Contemporary times

Summary of the content of the academic discipline:

The war impact on Soviet society. Economic recovery of the USSR in the post-war period. Fundamental changes in the international arena after the World War II. Liberalization of the political regime in the USSR in 1953-1964. "Thaw" in the cultural life of the country. Socio-economic development of the USSR in 1953-1964. The political course of Y.V. Andropov. The search for ways to overcome stagnant phenomena. The "detente" of international tension. The Perestroika of the political system of the USSR in 1985-1991. The aggravation of national relations. The end of the existence of the USSR. Economic transformations in the USSR during the years of Perestroika. M.S. Gorbachev's "New Political Thinking" in International Politics. Registration of the Russian statehood. Post-war reconstruction and development of Ukraine in 1945-1991. The acquisition of independence. Formation of state structures. Russian-Ukrainian economic and political contradictions.