This discipline is a logical continuation of the study of pedagogy (section "Pedagogy of the modern school") and will lay the foundations for further study of teaching methods of academic subjects.

The purpose of the discipline is the theoretical and practical preparation of students for the organization of modern forms of educational work with children.

Tasks of the discipline:

- to prepare students for the organization of educational work with children;
- to give an idea of educational work: its essence, purpose, content, forms, technology;
- to prepare students to work in a children's health camp;
- to help students practically master the basic forms of educational work: collective creative work, creative competition, celebration, game;
- to form professional pedagogical skills necessary for a future teacher in educational work with children.
