

The name of the academic discipline:
“Practical Course of the Main Foreign Language”

Speciality code and name	1-21 05 06 Romance Germanic Philology
Year of study	1, 2
Academic semester	1, 2, 3
Amount of classroom-based hours:	102
Lectures	-
Seminar classes	-
Practical classes	102
Laboratory classes	-
Form of current certification (credit/graded credit /exam)	-
Amount of credit hours	-
Competences	To master information about accent-rhythmic structures and tonal-melodic contours at the level of a single word, phrase, text (dialogical, descriptive); To improve the reading technique, to develop the skills of an adequate reading comprehension; To develop skills and abilities of perception of authentic oral English speech of various communicative content; To develop the ability to implement communicative intentions adequately in accordance with the language norms and communicative situations; To develop skills and abilities to use the studied grammatical structures in oral and written speech.

Summary of the academic discipline:

The content of the discipline “Practical Course of the Main Foreign Language” is aimed at improving the articulatory-perceptual base of the English language at the segmental and super-segmental levels; expansion of the active vocabulary, which allows for full-fledged speech activity within the subject-thematic blocks of the curriculum; development of stable skills and abilities for the correct use of the studied grammatical phenomena in oral and written speech in accordance with the communicative intention and the situation of communication.