

The name of the academic discipline:
“Translation and Computer Technologies”

Speciality code and name	1-21 05 06 Romance Germanic Philology
Year of study	3
Academic semester	6
Amount of classroom-based hours:	68
Lectures	18
Seminar classes	50
Practical classes	-
Laboratory classes	-
Form of current certification (credit/ graded credit /exam)	credit
Amount of credit hours	6
Competences	To know the methods and techniques of translation activity; the grammatical basics of translation; the main ways to achieve the adequacy of the translated text; the basics of different types of translation. To be able to use in practice the linguistic conceptual and categorical apparatus accepted in the professional environment.
Summary of the academic discipline:
The content of the discipline "Translation and Computer Technologies" aims to develop students' knowledge of the main problems of translation activities related to the computerisation of modern society and computer tools for solving such problems, as well as to form and improve skills and abilities to use modern computer tools for optimal and fast search for adequate translation. The discipline covers 3 topics: computer technology as a tool in translator's work, linguistic difficulties in computer translation, integrated application of electronic resources in the translation of texts of different styles and genres.	