

Academic discipline:
«History of classical sociology»

Code and name of specialty	1-23 01 05 Sociology
Training course	1/2
Semester of training	2/3/4
Number of class hours:	34
Lectures	26
Seminar classes	8
Practical classes	-
Laboratory classes	-
Form of current assessment (credit/differential credit/exam)	-/ credit/exam
Number of credits	6
Competencies to be formed	Mastering the discipline « History of classical sociology » should ensure the formation of basic professional competencies: to orientate the prerequisites for the occurrence, stages and trends in the development of sociological science, to analyze and to evaluate the heritage of the classics of foreign sociology.

Summary of the content of the academic discipline:

«History of classical sociology» is an academic discipline that forms students' systematized knowledge about the process of formation and development of the sociological science of the classical period. The content of the academic discipline includes work in the following areas: the formation in students of a theoretical and methodological basis of scientific explaining and understanding of the patterns of development of sociology in the historical perspective and the diversity of its directions; teaching creative understanding of the processes of formation and development of social theories, an objective assessment of the contribution of the classics of sociology to the development of the discipline in general; development of students' independent sociological and critical thinking in the process of studying the theoretical heritage of the classics of sociological thought.