

Academic discipline:
"Organization of entrepreneurial activity"

Code and name of specialty	1-23 01 05 Sociology
Training course	3
Semester of training	5
Number of class hours:	8
Lectures	2
Seminar classes	2
Practical exercises	-
Laboratory classes	-
Form of intermediate assessment (credit/differential credit/exam)	credit
Number of credits	2
Competencies to be formed	To calculate and justify the price of products (works, services); to calculate and plan tax payments and justify the choice of the taxation regime of the created business entity; to develop the necessary package of contractual documentation for conducting business

Summary of the content of the academic discipline:

"Organization of entrepreneurial activity" is an educational discipline aimed at forming the necessary complex of theoretical knowledge about the essence of entrepreneurship, its organizational and legal forms and practical competencies on the procedures for opening, managing and operating a business, taking into account the specifics of state regulation in the Republic of Belarus, revealing the creative potential of future specialists associated with offering creative (innovative) solutions current economic problems and challenges facing business entities and society as a whole. Studying this discipline will enable future specialists to show their entrepreneurial initiative and business activity in the real sector of the economy, as well as receive the necessary theoretical and practical training in developing business plans and implementing investment and innovative projects within the framework of an existing business.