

Academic discipline:
«Academic writing»

Code and name of specialty	1-23 01 15 Social Communications
Training course	1
Semester of training	1
Number of class hours:	34
Lectures	18
Seminar classes	16
Practical classes	-
Laboratory classes	-
Form of current assessment (credit/differential credit/exam)	credit
Number of credits	3
Competencies to be formed	Studying the academic discipline « Academic writing » is to ensure the formation of universal and special competencies: to be capable of self-development and improvement in professional activity; to take the initiative and adapt to changes in professional activity; to choose and apply means of written logically consistent presentation of sociological information.
Brief content of the academic discipline:
« Academic writing » is an academic discipline that aims to develop the skills of critical reading, critical writing, structuring and formatting of academic texts. The academic discipline introduces the specifics procedural design in the process of scientific communication and genres of academic texts; forms the skills of searching and mastering various types of sources; teaches abstracting, summarizing and reviewing academic texts. It allows to form the critical evaluation of argumentation skills; introduces the criteria for evaluating academic texts; forms the skills of writing academic texts, as well as competent design and presenting the academic texts of various genres; teaches strategies for searching and selecting bibliographic sources, assessing the reliability and relevance of sources.	