

Academic discipline:
"Criminal law (special part)

Code and name of specialty	1-24 01 02 Jurisprudence
Training course	2
Semester of training	4
Number of class hours:	64
Lectures	32
Seminar classes	32
Practical exercises
Laboratory classes
Form of intermediate assessment (credit/differential credit/exam)	credit
Number of credits	6
Competencies to be formed	To apply the criminal law in law enforcement activities correctly and reasonably, to analyze the composition of the crime and its signs, to give a criminal legal assessment of a socially dangerous act, to determine punishment for the perpetrator, to establish the grounds and conditions for the release of a person from criminal liability in strict accordance with the current criminal legislation of the Republic of Belarus

Summary of the content of the academic discipline:

The concept, meaning and system of the Special part of the Criminal Code. The concept and process of crime qualification. Crimes against the peace and security of mankind. War crimes. Crimes against life and health, sexual integrity, the way of family relations and the interests of minors, against personal freedom. Crimes against constitutional human rights and freedoms, property, the order of economic activity. Crimes against environmental safety and the natural environment, public safety, traffic safety and transportation, against public health. Crimes against public order and public morality, information security. Corruption crimes.