

Academic discipline:
«Information technologies in legal activity»

Code and name of specialty	1-24 01 03 Economic Law
Training course	1
Semester of training	1
Number of class hours:	34
Lectures	8
Seminar classes	-
Practical classes	26
Laboratory classes	-
Form of current assessment (credit/differential credit/exam)	credit
Number of credits	-
Competencies to be formed	The development of the academic discipline "Information technologies in legal activity" should ensure the formation of universal and specialized competencies: to solve standard tasks of professional activity based on the use of information and communication technologies; the use of means of obtaining, storing, processing, transmitting and protecting information, to work with geospatial information.
Brief content of the academic discipline:
"Information technologies in legal activity" is a discipline of an additional type training module, which includes the following topics: Basic concepts of legal informatization. Application of modern information technologies in legal activity. Information and communication technologies in law. Application of modern information technologies in legal activity. Basic concepts of legal informatization. Information and communication technologies in law. Electronic document management. Electronic digital signature. Basic electronic services in the Republic of Belarus. The content of the discipline is designed to provide: the formation of students' theoretical and methodological foundations of knowledge on modern working methods with legal information, the idea formation of trends in the information technologies development and the use of modern information and communication technologies to solve problems in the professional activity of a lawyer; - stimulating students' cognitive interest in the use of computer technology in the future professional lawyer activity.	