

The name of the academic discipline:
“Basics of Alternative Dispute Resolution”

Specialty code and name	1-24 01 03 Economic Law
Year of study	4
Semester of study	7
Number of in-class academic hours:	34
Lectures	20
Seminar classes	14
Practical classes	-
Laboratory classes	-
Form of the current assessment (credit/graded credit /exam)	credit
Number of credit points	2
Competences	Apply the norms of legislation when considering disputes not only within the framework of the judicial system, but also by other methods and means of alternative dispute resolution (conflicts) of politics or within the framework of the implementation of the economic activities of the organization.

Summary of the academic discipline:

The purpose of studying the discipline is to form knowledge about legal regulation and practice of applying alternative methods of dispute resolution (conflicts), on the relationship between judicial and extra-judicial procedures for dispute resolution, formation of a legal worldview on the creation and preservation of partnership business relations and the legal world in the business environment and society. Within the framework of the set goal, the objectives of the academic discipline are as follows: mastering by students the theoretical foundations of knowledge in the discipline studied; developing in students the skills of using system and comparative analysis in the study of legal phenomena on the subject of the academic discipline; instilling in students the skills of independent identification of law enforcement problems and using an integrated approach to their solution; acquisition by students of certain practical skills in the field of application of legislation on extra-judicial dispute resolution; development of independent and creative thinking in solving law enforcement problems in the field of alternative dispute resolution.