

Academic discipline:
"Corporate information systems"

Code and name of specialty	1-25 01 12 Economic informatics
Training course	3
Semester of training	5/6
Number of class hours:	156
Lectures	78
Seminar classes	-
Practical exercises	-
Laboratory classes	78
Form of intermediate assessment (credit/differential credit/exam)	exam/exam
Number of credits	6/3
Competencies to be formed	To analyze the architecture of corporate information systems, to determine the requirements for their functionality, to work with various modules of corporate information systems of the ERP class

Summary of the content of the academic discipline:

The course "Corporate information systems" is focused on the formation of theoretical knowledge and skills in the application of corporate information systems for business management. The course examines the main technologies and classes of information systems used in the management of companies and industrial enterprises, familiarizes with the features of their design and implementation, structure and basic elements, and studies the main information management systems offered on the market. Special attention is paid to the study of ERP class corporate information systems based on the 1C platform: Company.