

Academic discipline:
"Economics of an organization (enterprise)"

Code and name of specialty	1-26 02-01 Business Administration
Training course	3/4
Semester of training	6/7
Number of class hours:	16
Lectures	8
Seminar classes	-
Practical exercises	8
Laboratory classes	-
Form of intermediate assessment (credit/differential credit/exam)	exam
Number of credits	3
Competencies to be formed	To understand the socio-economic nature of the organization (enterprise), its functions, place and role in the development of the national economy, calculate and analyze the main indicators, develop and justify decisions on the issue, the activities of the organization

Summary of the content of the academic discipline:

"Economics of an organization (enterprise)" is an academic discipline that considers an enterprise as a production system operating in an external environment.

The content of the discipline includes work in the following areas:

- study the role and functions, the essence of the economic activity of the enterprise;
- study the methodological approaches to assessing the effectiveness of the company's activities;
- study the basics of making and justifying decisions to improve the efficiency of the enterprise.