

Academic discipline:
"International economics and international business"

Code and name of specialty	1-26 02-01 Business Administration
Training course	2/3
Semester of training	3/ 4/5
Number of class hours:	34
Lectures	18
Seminar classes	-
Practical exercises	16
Laboratory classes	-
Form of intermediate assessment (credit/differential credit/exam)	credit/exam
Number of credits	6
Competencies to be formed	To develop and implement a development strategy for the most effective methods of doing business in global markets, to identify and apply competitive advantages to maintain their positions, taking into account the specifics of various markets
Summary of the content of the academic discipline:
"International economics and international business" is an academic discipline that reveals the role and essence of modern international economic relations, organizational and economic mechanisms of their regulation. The content of the discipline includes work in the following areas: the study of the prerequisites and main stages of the formation of the modern system of international economics, trends and mechanisms of functioning of world markets for goods, services, technologies, capital, currencies, labor resources; consideration of the basic theories of international economics; the study of the essence of international trade, investment, currency and migration policy; the learning of the directions and promising forms of participation of the Republic of Belarus in the modern system of the international economy; the study of the theoretical foundations of international business development.	