

Academic discipline:
«University studies»

Code and name of specialty	6-05-0421-01 Jurisprudence
Training course	1
Semester of training	1
Number of class hours	18
Lectures	18
Seminar classes	-
Practical classes	-
Laboratory classes	-
The form of intermediate certification (credit/differential credit/exam)	-
Number of credits	-
Competencies to be formed	A specialist should know the basics of research activities, search, analyze and synthesize information; to solve standard problems of professional activity on the information and communication technologies basis; to be capable of self-development and improvement in professional activity; to take initiative and adapt to changes in professional activity; to have a humanistic worldview, to have citizenship and patriotic qualities; to identify factors and mechanisms of historical development, to determine the social significance of historical events; to analyze socio-economic phenomena and processes in society and the world, to apply economic and sociological knowledge in professional activities.

Brief content of the academic discipline:

University as a sociocultural phenomenon. History of formation and development of Mogilev State University named after A.A. Kuleshov. The educational process organization. Extracurricular activities of students and educational process organization. Students' research work. Specialty characteristics. Information and educational environment of the university. Library as an element of the information and educational university environment. Student's portfolio. Freshman student and university.